to follow investor friendly land policies and a single window approach for promoting hotel projects and also for allotting sites on revenue sharing basis and granting extra FSI/ FAR for hotels.

For training of manpower to meet the demand of increased tourist inflow, the Ministry has sanctioned 4 new Food Craft Institutes and 9 State Institutes of Hotel Management in the country during the year 2007-08. Training is also provided to the stakeholders under the scheme of Capacity Building for Service Providers.

Crime against foreign tourists

13834. SHRI .PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

whether, it is a fact that the incidents of molestation and beating of foreign tourists have taken place at famous tourist spots in some States;

whether it is also a fact that in some cases, foreign tourists have died too;

if so, the details of tourists died at various tourist spots in the country during last one year, State-wise; and the details ©faction being taken by Government?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI ABMIKA SONI): (a) to (d) 'Public Order' and 'Police' are State subjects as per the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution of India and as such, the registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crime, including crimes against tourists, is the primary responsibility of State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. The data on incidents of crimes against tourists, including foreign tourists is not compiled by Ministry of Tourism. Following recent media reports regarding harassment with tourists in India, the Ministry of Tourism discussed the issue of safety and security of tourists with Secretaries of Tourism of States/Union Territories and representatives of Ministry of Home Affairs and Ministry of Defence. It was emphasised that ensuring the safety and security of tourists is of paramount importance and State Government/Union Territories must ensure the same.

Promotion of cultural tourism

3835. SHRI AMIR ALAM KHAN: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

whether Government is taking steps to promote cultural tourism in the country;

if so, the details thereof; and the steps taken to attract the Buddhist tourists specially from the South-East and East-Asian countries?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The diverse tourism products of India including Culture Tourism and Buddhist sites are being promoted by the Ministry of Tourism through its media campaigns, website, production and distribution of publicity material and dissemination of information through India Tourism Offices in India and abroad. In 2004-05 and 2005-06, a major media campaign titled 'Come to India — Walk with the Buddha' was launched in the South East and East Asian countries to promote India's Buddhist Heritage.
